There are thousands of branded products and services on offer, carefully selected from suppliers who offer the best in quality, service and peace of mind. The scheme offers genuine discounts, with savings over and above those available on the high street.

Organisations that have implemented the scheme have seen the benefits in a variety of different ways, including:

- A significant enhancement to the benefits package, at minimal cost
- A way of engaging all employees, making them feel valued
- An immediate benefit, with employees making quantifiable and direct savings
- An aid in enhancing the employer's image, making the organisation an employer of choice.

The scheme is available with various different set-up options, allowing employers to personalise the offering with their own logo and branding. The scheme can be accessed on-line and also in an off-line environment, via printed benefits directories, allowing access for all.

Setting-up a scheme is simple and quick, with any on-going administration being fully-outsourced. Any questions from employees are dealt with through the helpdesk, which is made available for the entire life of the scheme.

The scheme is highly cost-effective, with minimal set-up and administration charges.
